

The National Rifle Association's Women on Target program, the NRA Members Council of Greater San Diego and Lemon Grove Rod and Gun Club are sponsoring a Pistol, Rifle and Shotgun Shooting Clinic in Alpine, California. The goal of the NRA's Women on Target program is to introduce women to shooting sports and provide them with the opportunity to meet other women interested in learning how to safely and effectively use a firearm. All women are welcome to these outings. (Shooting a shotgun is optional. Under 18 requires a legal guardian be present throughout the clinic).

All clinics are held at the Lemon Grove Rod & Gun Club at 16232 Sequan Truck Trail, Alpine, CA.

These clinics fill fast so contact Scheduling Coordinator Sue Johnson at 619-443-3704 or nra.womenontarget.lgrgc@gmail.com for times, dates, and availability. Once you have confirmed an available date to attend, fill out the form below and mail it with a check or money order for $25.00 payable to NRAMCGSD, to Sue at 13275 Beechtree Street, Lakeside, CA 92040.

The cost of the Clinic is $25.00 and payment is required by check or money order a month before the clinic you wish to attend. All equipment will be provided, including firearms, ammunition, eye/ear protection and instructional material. Each clinic will introduce and instruct up to 42 women in the safe handling and use of .22 caliber rifles and handguns, as well as 12 and 20 gauge shotguns. Larger caliber centerfire handguns may also be available. Each woman will receive one-on-one instruction at each venue by an experienced mentor. NRA certified Range Safety Officers and Instructors will provide safety briefings at each venue and oversee all shooting in this safe, relaxing and fun-filled environment.
